

Manhattan Public Library Highlights

It's time to TALK!

The Manhattan Library Association is offering a four-part book discussion series beginning this month through April entitled "African-American Perspectives."

Join us January 26 at 7pm to discuss this month's selected TALK Series book, Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neal Hurston. Discussions will be held in the Groesbeck Meeting Room. We look forward to having you!

Come check out your copy of Their Eyes Were Watching God today!

MLK Storytime

Join us for a storytime of amazing picture books, songs and a craft to help young people learn about the importance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. Featuring The Crayon Box That Talked, These Hands, and a video of the award-winning picture book Martin's Big Words. Recommended for ages 3-7. January 16 at 2:00 pm.

For updates on services, new library additions, and some occasional surprise give-aways, follow us on:

facebook.com/manhattanpubliclibrary
twitter.com/manhattanpl

Check out the new and improved
Manhattan Public Library website!
Update your browser bookmarks with this address:
www.manhattan.lib.ks.us

Month at a Glance

Special Events

MLK Day Storytime
January 16: 2:00pm

TALK Program
January 26: 7:00pm

Regularly Scheduled Events

(starting January 16)

Baby Rhyme Time
Mon: 9:30 am and 11:00 am

Move & Groove Storytime
Tues & Thurs: 10:00 am
Wed: 11:00 am

Toddler Time
Tues & Thurs: 11:00 am
Wed: 10:00 am

Reading Round Up
Wed: 1:30 pm

Family Storytime
Sat: 11:00 am

READ with Dogs
Sun: 2:00 pm

TLAB
January 27 at 4:30 pm

ZOOfare Tails
January 27 at 10:00 am

Last Tuesday Gaming
January 31 at 4:00 pm